Over 80% of IDEA students are considered low-income and one of every three students is the first in their family to go to college. Since our first graduating class in 2007, 100% of our seniors have been accepted and matriculated to a college or

PART II – SCOPE OF WORK AND PERFORMANCE REQUIREMENTS

1. Scope of Service and Performance Requirements

The following describes the service and performance requirements that the selected vendor will be required to meet. Failure to address or to fully describe capabilities to accomplish all elements of this section will result in a loss of evaluation points.

- PK-2 Literacy: We are seeking adaptive literacy software to engage early learners in the basic foundational literacy components to enhance and remediate skills. Students are to experience interactive software that reinforces the building blocks literacy, such as: phonemic awareness, phonological awareness, decoding, segmenting, blending, as well as fluency and comprehension. Students should have various opportunities to demonstrate learning at mastery. As part of our PK-2 instructional block, students are issued 1:1 devices and allocated at least 30 minutes to engage in technology. This occurs for five days a week, 30 minutes per day. During this time, skills presented in teacher-directed groups are to be reinforced and practiced to mastery.
- PK - 2 Data Reporting: mastery of learning is mandatory and to be determined through filtered reports at the national, regional and campus levels. Campus leaders are to access student data information with the purpose of determining progress toward organizational goals. Organizational goals: Year 1 schools: 80% of students are reading on/above grade level. Year 2 schools: 90% of students are reading on/above grade level.
- Professional Development: to ensure scaffolded, interactive workshops throughout the school year to produce skilled, trained leaders in adaptive software. Leaders are to navigate the software and data reports to provide targeted, specific teacher feedback to ensure student academic progress and growth.
